

Summary of Prize Money Spend, by Code and Class 2023

The table below details 2023 race volume and related HBLB prize money spend, by race code and class, where it can be definitively apportioned. Please note that not all prize money items can be assigned to both a code and specific race class – the note below details the full list of included and excluded prize money items.

Race code	Class	Pattern	Races	Prize Money spend	Share of races	Share of PM spend
Flat	1	Grp.1	36	£ 3,381,365	0%	5%
		Grp.2	49	£ 1,684,283	0%	3%
		Grp.3	71	£ 1,841,842	1%	3%
		Listed	125	£ 1,976,797	1%	3%
		Class 1 total	281	£ 8,884,286	3%	14%
	2		433	£ 7,820,487	4%	12%
	3		435	£ 3,590,752	4%	6%
	4		1,283	£ 6,536,051	13%	10%
	5		2,002	£ 8,060,536	20%	12%
	6		1,930	£ 4,941,562	19%	8%
Flat Total			6,364	£39,833,674	64%	61%
Jump	1	Grp.1	40	£ 2,013,670	0%	3%
		Grp.2	62	£ 1,357,335	1%	2%
		Grp.3	49	£ 1,591,622	0%	2%
		Listed	39	£ 394,577	0%	1%
		Class 1 total	190	£ 5,357,204	2%	8%
	2		239	£ 3,876,655	2%	6%
	3		598	£ 4,757,529	6%	7%
	4		1,521	£ 7,308,621	15%	11%
	5		1,101	£ 3,893,655	11%	6%
	6		2	£ 3,978	0%	0%
Jump Total			3,651	£25,197,643	36%	39%
Sub-Total			10,015	£65,031,316	100%	100%
Non-race specific schemes:
Elite Mares Scheme (Jump)				£ 158,250
Winter Jump Fund (Jump)				£ 1,343,200
Grand Total				£66,532,766

Note: The code split of the grand total prize money figure was 60% Flat, 40% Jump. Where spend by code and class is shown in the above table, this includes Ratecard Plus, Incremental Prize Money (IPM), Great British Bonus, Sunday Appearance Scheme, Divided Race Fund and related IPM. Fixture-level payments (Winter Jump Fund) and schemes which cannot be allocated to both code and class (Elite Mares Scheme) are included separately.